ZEISS ASPHERIC HAND MAGNIFIERS

WITH HARD PROTECTIVE COATING

These magnifiers are graded according to their dioptic power and display the largest possible diameter for their respective power. Their aspheric optical design is matched to the conditions in which they are used. Image quality and distortion – with utilization of the highest possible magnification – have been optimized so that no aberrations of any consequence occur. The hand magnifiers are labeled with their refracting power (D), which can be used to calculate the magnification on the basis of the conditions of use.
